Gateway Classic Cars Gets Even Bigger!

Gateway Classic Cars, the largest classic cars sales company, is pleased to announce the opening of its fifth location in Indianapolis, Indiana

The company is going through an aggressive growth period with the start up of the second location in 2013, Indianapolis, following the opening of Detroit in June.

With the addition of Indianapolis, Gateway Classic Cars will be offering over 600 classic, collector and exotic cars and trucks to the buying enthusiast.

In business since 1999, Gateway Classic Cars has become the most successful classic car sales company, selling classic and exotic cars and trucks for private owners, collectors and estates, under consignment Rules.

While Sales to buying clients is global, acquisition of inventory from private Sellers, is local, requiring the need for showrooms in strategic metropolitan locations.
