Dinner Theatre at Gateway Classic Cars

"Come and solve the crime, but not before things get pretty wild!"

Saint Louis, Missouri, January 20, 2017— Gateway Classic Car's Events and Expo Center hosts "Bullets in the Bathtub" a comedy dinner theatre production. Join us on February 17, 2017, at 6:00 pm for an evening of dining and laughter. You can join the wildly entertaining cast of Jest Murder and Mystery Company by engaging in this hilarious drama centered around crowd participation and pure comedy! The year is 1920 and the setting is "Cherry's Speakeasy" we need your help solving the crime of "Who put "da finger" on Harry's Hyde!" Friends and family have a hand in solving the mystery of the one thing that bathtubs were made for in the 1920's. Ok, well maybe two things.

You'll meet crazy characters like Red E. Mix, Trixie, Larry, Joey, J. Edna Hoover and much more when you attend "Bullets in the Bathtub". Don't forget to bring your gangster hat, Tommy gun, and flapper ensembles! General admission is $35 including appetizers and a cash bar. $75 VIP Tickets including entree, open bar, dessert and select seating.
